

XRAY X12'23 US & EU

* Front droop is whatever is created by the amount of shims on top of the steering knuckle, combined with the noted front springs and kingpin grease. **Rear droop is created by use of a 1.75mm shim on the bottom of the shock spring collar, which at 3.2mm ride height makes for approx 1.0mm of droop.

